Writ Petition No. 922 of 2002 (S/B)

Hon. V.S. Sirpurkar, C.J.
Hon. P.C. Pant, J.

Heard learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and Mr. K.P. Upadhyaya, Standing Counsel for the State.

This matter has obviously become infructuous because it pertains to the transfer of an employee, who has, in pursuance of this transfer order, joined at the transferred place. There is no stay in the meantime. As it is, because of the time gap of almost three years, the matter has become infructuous. If the petitioner so feels, he may represent to the State Government. If such a representation is made within one month from today, it shall be disposed of within two months thereafter.

Writ Petition is disposed of as infructuous.
